4. activeCollab

The screenshot shows the activeCollab interface for a project named "IS4600 Birthday Party". The "Tasks" tab is active, displaying a list of tasks on the left sidebar. The task "#7: Write thank you notes" is selected and its details are shown in the main area. The task was created on May 20, 2014, by user IS4600, under the category "Party favors" and milestone "Party". It is due on May 30, 2014, and has no related tasks. The task is currently unassigned, with a 3-hour estimate. The main content area contains the instruction "write personal thank you notes for attendees" and a subtask management section with "No subtasks yet" and a "New Subtask" button. A "Leave a Comment" button is also present. The "HISTORY" section shows the task was created 8 minutes ago. The bottom of the interface includes navigation and utility buttons like "QUICK ADD", "NOTIFICATIONS", "STATUS UPDATES", "BUY NOW", and "TRASH".

The screenshot shows the "New Task" modal form in activeCollab. The form is titled "New Task" and contains the following fields and options:

- Title: Clown
- Description: Research and book clown
- Category: Entertainment
- Milestone: Party
- Priority: Normal
- Visibility: Normal
- Due On: (empty date field)
- Estimate: 2 h of General
- Label: No Label
- Assignees: Owner Company, IS4600 (with an "Add People to Project" button)
- Attach Files: (button)

At the bottom of the modal is a green "Add Task" button. The background shows the same project page as the first screenshot, but the modal is in the foreground.
